

10 things to know about the Our Healthy Future

PLANNING PROJECT

1 Town hall meetings for Hamilton Health Sciences staff are underway at seven of HHS' sites.

President Rob Maclsaac and Chief Operating Officer Brenda Flaherty are bringing staff up to date on how the organization's Strategic Plan is coming to life, including the latest on the Our Healthy Future planning process.

2 There's a new video.

We've just launched a new video, starring Physician-in-Chief Dr. Barry Lumb and President Rob Maclsaac, offering examples of why a population health approach is so important for our vision of the future. See it here at ourhealthyfuture.ca.

3 Read the second Progress Report.

A report on the latest round of Community Conversations will be published the second week of February. There will be some paper copies available at HHS hospitals and you can also find it online at ourhealthyfuture.ca.

4 West Niagara community engagement.

A community workshop about West Lincoln Memorial Hospital will be held February 8 at Lakeview School. Following that, information sessions for the general public are scheduled for late February and late March.

5 Meet the people we've met.

We're launching "Faces of Our Healthy Future" videos and stories to profile the people we've heard from through community engagement. Follow HHS on Twitter (@HamHealthSc) to see them as they're released.

6 We're planning a summit.

On March 1, HHS will host the Our Healthy Future Summit with health and social services partners, and community leaders. We'll discuss the 20-year-vision that is starting to take shape at HHS and ask for feedback.

7 Read Rob's Spectator article.

President Rob Maclsaac has written an article for The Hamilton Spectator on our emerging vision for the future of care at HHS. It will be placed opposite the editorial and letters page on February 2.

8 Add your comment.

New banners promoting online and social media options for you to join the Our Healthy Future conversation are popping up around HHS sites.

9 Staff intranet tab for Our Healthy Future.

Coming soon as an additional way of keeping staff in touch, and to complement the ourhealthyfuture.ca website.

10 We're visiting city and town councils.

We'll be giving Our Healthy Future updates to municipal councils in West Niagara and Hamilton over the next two months.
